"Having a faculty appointment has provided me with the opportunity to be part of a broader community of educators beyond my own teaching unit. The appointment is an acknowledgement of your commitment to learners and your competencies as a Family Medicine teacher."

I. Waters, Social Worker.

PLEASE CHANGE QUOTES

The Faculty of Medicine benefits greatly from the large number of Health Professional Educators who hold status-only faculty appointments across the Faculty of Medicine.

STATUS-ONLY APPOINTMENT

Do you work at a University of Toronto affiliated clinical teaching site?

The Faculty of Medicine benefits greatly from the contributions of a large number of scientists, researchers and clinical (non-MD) professionals.

The majority are employed full-time in our affiliated hospitals and research institutes and play an integral role in clinical care, the teaching of health professional learners, and research activities.

Be Recognized!
